Pertaining to a Non-Voice, Non- )

CC Docket No. 92-76

the Supplemental Comments, STARSYS and ORBCOMM have failed to provide sufficient justification for acceptance of these procedurally defective pleadings. Nonetheless, if the Commission accepts these pleadings, it must give dbX an opportunity to respond to the STARSYS and ORBCOMM assertions by accepting the dbX reply. Moreover, acceptance of the dbX reply is in the public interest because it will provide the Commission with a greater amount of information on the issues raised in the ORBCOMM and STARSYS Supplemental Comments.

For the foregoing reasons, dbX requests that the Commission grant this motion for leave to file a reply to the ORBCOMM and STARSYS Supplemental Comments filed in this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Robert A. Mazer", is written over a horizontal line.
